JEWS ALARMED BY REPORTS OF MASSACRE

(By Associated Press.)

ODESSA, RUSSIA, July 23.—The Jews here are in a state of panic, fearing an anti-Jewish outbreak as the result of the killing of a drunken Cossack, who recently wandered through the Jewish quarters, brandishing his sabre and shouting "Death to the Jews!"

Governor-General Kaulbars, addressing a deputation of Jews to-day, said; "I vonch for my soldiers, but am unable to say what the Cossacks or Christian civilians might do."

Cossacks this morning looted three Jewish shops.

The situation bears all the usual signs of a tense lull before a storm. The populace is apprehensive, and the attitude of the garrison and reserves is uncertain. Anarchist excesses are feared. Four hundred political arrests have been made within twenty-four hours.

BOMB THROWN INTO SINGER BRANCH WORKS

(By Associated Press.)
BEUTHEN, SILLESIA, July 23.—Bombs have been thrown at the branch houses of the Singer Sewing Machine Works at Sosnowice and Bendzin, doing great damage and injuring ten workmen. Military cordons have been placed around the factories. A state of panic exists at Sosnowice.

NEW YORK, July 23.—At the office of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, in this city, it was said that the Singer Company has branch stores in Sosnowlee and Bendzin, but the company has received no information from its own sources as to the blowing up of its establishment in those cities. The company's loss, it was stated, could not be extensive.

Sosnowlee and Bendzin are in Russian Poland, near the Silesian border. They are factory towns, five miles apart, with a population of about 20,000 people each.

FRANCE ABSORBED BY SITUATION IN RUSSIA

PARIS July 21.—The Russian signation absorbs the attention of officials, the public, and the press of Paris, and the offect is partisularly apparent on the Bourse, where the stump in Russian securities to-day almost caused a parie. The financial effect of the imperial manifesto is causing apparentasion as one of the chief industments to the taking up of the last Russian loan was the gavernment's assurance of the quiuting of internal disorders by co-operation with Parliament, Members of the Bourse, however, ursa calminess, declaring that if the situation nomains another week without an outbreak Russian securities will be stronger than before, as the agitations incident to the debates in Parliament will have been eximpted and the government will then have demonstrated its ability to maintain order.

tive commission charged with the duty of preparing the codification and de-velopment of international law. Work of Congress.

Work of Congress.

This session of the Interparliamentary Union was called to pass upon the reports filed in June by the two commissions which were appointed at the Brussels session last August. It was considered wise to have an extraordinary session of the union, so that its entire weight might be back of the request for the conversion of the Second Hague Conference into a permanent body, when this proposition is represented to the members of that conference next May, in the form of a report approved unanimously by the members of the Interparliamentary Commission.

report approved unanimously by the members of the Interparliamentary Commission.

This will be, of course, the most important point on the programme of the London Conference, but hardly less important is the report of the commission on p model arbitration treaty. That commission, like the one on International Congress, is composed of very eminent men. Its president is Ernst von Piener, ex-Ministen of Finance of Austria, He was for many years the leader of the German party in the Austrian Parliament. This commission had to grapple with these problems:

(1) How to draw in treaty of arbitration which gan be executed by all nations, without holding the progressive countries back to the position of the least advanced powers.

(2) How to draw a treaty which can hope to be approved by the President and Senate of the United States, without forfeiling the favor of the great powers of Europe, that have adopted as their standard the Anglo-French treaty of arbitration.

Plan Proposed.

Plan Proposed.

This latter problem arose from the Jailure of the Hay treaties to meet with the approval of the United States in the form in which they were negotiated. The Hay treaties purposed to refer to arbitration all questions of a lexal nature, provided they do not affect the vital interest or the honor of either of the contracting powers, or the interests of a third power. A subsequent clause was inserted which provided that when any particular controversy might arise a subsequent agreement should be entered into between the contracting powers, hefore resort he had to the Court of Arbitration under the terms of this treaty.

The Senate struck out the word "agreement" and substituted the word "treaty," and then passed the treaty thus amended by practically a unanimous vote, only nine Senators objecting to the amend-case when the subsequent agreement was being concluded.

Upon the initiative of American Congressment the Interparliamentary Commendation decided upon a plan to surmount; the difficulty. This plan is to specify distinctly the classes of questions to be arbitrated, so that the Senate can exercise its judgment when it ratifies the treaty. To prevent this specification from holding all nations back to the position occupied by the least progressive country. It was proposed that each nation country, it was proposed that each nation country it was proposed that each nation country, it was proposed that each nation country it w

The Addition to these the most important points both the programme of it in union, several other very important questions are to be considered, and the indications are that there will be perfect agreement upon the most important points, but perhaps a difference of opinion on the question of limitation of armaments. If the City Council nots upon the recommendation of the Street Committee, the Postal Tolograph Company, which has agreed to comply with an ordinance to place its whrea underground, will build a conduit up Governor Street from Main Street, across Capitol Street, through Governor to Broad, and thence on out into the northern section of the city, to carry its wires. The asphalt pavement recently put down on Capitol Street and on Governor Street morth of Capitol Street to Broad, will be torn up while the company is putting in the conduit in compliance with the ordinance.

The committee made this recommendation at a meeting held yesterday afternoon, and did it, too, against the advice of the City Engineer, who was in favor of the Postal Company changing its line at an alley between Capitol and Ross Streets and going east to Belvin Alley, and thence out and across Broad Street.

Had No Quorum.

The Street Committee did not adjourn, however, until after 7 o'clock, and it was scheduled to meet with the Committee on Electricity at 8 o'clock. The result was that a quorum was not present at the joint session when it was called to order at 8:15. Fifteen minutes later there was no quorum, and at 9 o'clock the members left, postponing the meeting until one week from to-night. The question before the joint committee is that of a remedy for the damage to the water and gas mains by electrolysis. An ordinance looking to the provention of electrolysis has already been considered by the Council.

Had the committee gone into the intri-cate question, it is said that a proposi-tion to double the overhead wires would have been advanced. This is the idea of many.

Mrs. Hartje's counsel closed their case in brief.

Helen Scott and the letters she is alleged to have, written to Tom Madine, the coachman corespondent, were brought forward as an issue. Fragments of the letters were declared by Attorney Edward Hartje, brother, of the millionaire libelant, this afternoon to have been taken from the sweepings in Madine's room in the Hartje stable. These letters purport to show that Miss Scott gave Tom Madine memoranda concerning the facts to which he should testify at the trial.

Tostimony concerning these letters was only gotten in after a hitter fight by Attorney John Freeman for Mrs. Hartje, who contended that this was not properly a part of the rebuttal, but belonged to the libeliant's case in chief. The court said that this was true, but admitted the testimony, say'iks, 'however, that these letters would 'have little weight, unless they were accounted for properly.

Expert Percifer Fraser testified that the writer of these letters, which Holen Scott admitted, was the same as of those letters which are said to show that she was a go-between for Mrs. Hartje and Madine. Mr. Fraser was on the stand most of the day, and testified that the writer of the "Dear Susie" letter, exhibit No. 9, was the same as that of the "admitted standards;" which is Mrs. Hartje and Madine. Mr. Fraser was on the stand most of the day, and testified that the writer of the "Dear Susie" letter, exhibit No. 9, was the same as that of the "admitted standards;" which is Mrs. Hartje.

Attorney Ed. Hartje exhibited a number of fragments which belong to the same letter, from which the well-known exhibit No. 3; was made. This had been folded in two parts, he explained. He said he had had this and the "Dear Susie" letter, exhibit the Hartje case, were obtained, the prosecution has selected and he was the same and the prosecution has selected and he was the same and have figured in the Hartje case, were obtained, the prosecution has selected and have selected the said he had had has and the "Dear Susie" letter, garding the manner in "forty letters," which cution has subpensed Police Inspector Robert Gray, Sergeant Michael Hanley and Special Officer Patrick Golden. ### EVERY REPUBLICAN IS ASKED FOR $1 (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, July 23.—Realizing that little or no financial assistance is to be expected from trusts and corporations, which have filled its campaign cheet in the past with funds with which to carry on its campaign in behalf of Republican Repassentatives to Congress, Representative Jumes S. Sherman and his associates on the Republican Nutlonal Congressional Committee have decided to appeal to Republicans to contribute one dollar each to its campaign fund.

In pursuance of this policy the committee has begun the malling of many thousands of latters to Republicans in all sections of the country asking them to contribute one dollar each. The appeal points out that the committee intends to make the cheff issue of its campaign for the election of a Republican majority in the next House of Representatives, the personality and achievements of President Roosevelt. Establishes Precedent.

Establishes Precedent.

In adopting this policy of collecting its campaign fund by popular subscription the committee is establishing a precedent. Horefore its campaign funds have been made up almost entirely by contributions from large corporations. Representative Sherman last night indicated that the committee was forred practically to adopt this method of obtaining funds to carry on its work.

Asked if an appeal to individual Republicans for subscriptions had ever been sent out before, he replied that he had never known of its being done before. "I don't think it has ever been negessat'y to do so before," he said, laughingly. "Some few notices went out yesterday, he said, "but the serious work of forwarding them will begin to-day." In addition of smiling them to Republican Nadors in all sections of the country to be posted where individuals may see them, the active will be sent to all Republican papers with a request that it be published for several days, so that all voters favoring the return of a Republican majority may forward their centribution to headquarters in this city.

for the tenth, or consolation trips, took place.

There were several of the unsuccessful candidates present to take part in the proceedings, which were very simple, and at the same time acknowledged by those participating as being the fairest way possible to all concerned. All the names of those who qualified by having one thousand votes or more were typewritten on a piece of plain white paper, which was then cut into strips, folded by the interested parties, placed in the Outing Man's old Panama hat, well shaken up, and held high above the head. The tallest lady present gracefully stood on her toe tips, raised her right arm gracefully above, dipped the tips of her tapered fingers within the hat, and, like Tom Thimb, pulled out a plum (one of the folded stips).

The first drawn for was the city, and the plum bore the hames of the Misses Kate McFall and Annie Allen impressed upon its surface. It was particularly graffying to sea these young ladies' names come up, for they stood at tentif place and had worked hard for a trip.

The State unsuccessfuls went through a like process, and by the most remarkable coincidence the names of the couple who stood tenth on the list numerically were in this instance also drawn—the Misses E. M. Topping and K. C. Folkes, of Amburg and Gloucester, respectively, are the lucky ones to get the State consolation prize.

The Outing Man was much in demand yesterday, both by telephone and by personal calls at the office. If anyone wants him to-day they had better call 401 before il A. M., for he is going away with The Times-Dispatch hall team to Blackstone on the midday train.

CONFERS WITH THAWS ABOUT HOLMAN LETTERS

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, July 23.—Roger O'Mara, formerly chief of police of Pittsburg, who is now employed as a detective in the interests of Harry K. Thaw, came to this city to-day and had a conference with Thaw and his wife, in which the letters from Mrs. Holman, Mrs. Thaw's mother, to Stanford White were discussed.

O'Mara was summoned by telegraph and was mot at the ferry landing by Mrs. Thaw. The two then went together to the Tombs prison and consulted with Thaw for a short time.
